Jungle Residence

Location: Phuket, Thailand

Year: 2025

Status: Design

Program: 5* branded residence

An exceptional residential development set amidst Thailand's lush, tropical landscapes. Rooted in a refined design approach, these residences blend the warmth of earthy ochres - evoking the gentle tones of wood and soil - with vibrant greens drawn from the surrounding environment. This thoughtful color palette not only draws the outdoors in, but also fosters a sense of calm and connection, celebrating the harmony between nature and modern living.

Inside each home, sleek geometric furnishings introduce a contemporary contrast, balancing organic hues with crisp lines and subtle sophistication. Expansive windows bathe interiors in natural light, further enhancing the interplay between interior and exterior spaces. The result is a tranquil sanctuary that invites reflection, nurtures well-being, and encourages a deeper appreciation for the beauty that envelops it.

Experience a place where architecture and interior design coexist in perfect balance - a setting that elevates everyday life through serenity, subtle elegance, and a gentle embrace of its verdant surroundings.
